

Video & Content Creator (w/m/d) Zürich, 20-40%

Are you passionate about technology and video creation, currently studying Media Production or you have experience with video production? We're looking for a great Video & Content Creator for our Mila Academy.

At Mila, it is our mission to build the most trustworthy, reliable and convenient network of tech support that will solve any tech challenges fast. Founded in Switzerland in 2015, we're now live in Germany, France, Austria and the UK. We fulfil this mission through cooperation with well-known partners such as Amazon, Otto, Bosch, Interdiscount, AXA, Sonos, Swisscom, and many others. Join our growing marketing team to help us create fantastic training content for our technicians across Europe.

YOUR MISSION WITH MILA

As a talented video creator with a great scripting and editing skillset, you will participate in the creation of training content for our Mila Academy, the online platform for our technicians to stay up to date with the latest tech.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Creating excellent video scripts and storyboards, based on product tutorials and guides
- Plan and record video and sound projects, including organising raw material, editing footage and creating static and motion graphics
- Ensuring that the production quality of the final product is top-notch
- Assisting in the creation of great promotional material to promote the new content

THIS IS YOU

- Currently in apprenticeship or studying looking for a part time job
- Great skillset in scripting, shooting and editing videos
- Creative mindset with high motivation towards the creation of digital media
- With a feeling for aesthetics and an eye for details
- Growth-mindset, always wanting to improve and have an impact

THIS IS US

- An international team of ambitious and diverse people working towards a common goal
- An opportunity where you can build up your skills and professional experience
- Flat hierarchies and direct communication for a quick implementation of your ideas
- Flexible hours and a family-like atmosphere
- A culture where we value each other's ideas and an entrepreneurial spirit

Interested? Send your application to hr@mila.com.